OFFICERS AND FLIER GUESTS AT DINNER HERE

Forty business and professional men were hosts at an "appreciation" dinner at the Hotel Gettysburg Thursday evening to Richard Birchler, owner-operator of Gettysburg Airport and Captain John R. Coshey, Lieut. Joseph F. Green, Captain Albert T. Kewdar and Lieut Homer E. Tabler, Jr., of the 55th College Training Detachment.

The dinner was tendered the guests in "appreciation" for their friendly community cooperation and as a farewell following their stay of more than a year in Gettysburg. The officers are expected to be transferred to other bases as soon as the Detachment completes its training here, within the next ten days or two weeks.

Mr. Birchler will remain in Gettysburg and will continue to operate the airport.

Jurist Presides
Judge W. C. Sheely presided and spoke briefly. He said that "It has been a pleasure to have the guests in the community. They have so fully become a part of the community and have won the respect and admiration of the citizens. The prospective fliers in the Detachment have also earned a warm spot in the hearts of our citizens. This informal dinner is an expression of our appreciation for your services."

Captain Coshey said that it had been a pleasure to serve his nation at the post here. "We have made many friends and the people of this community have been most hospitable and friendly." He said it was 15 months to the day since his arrival in Gettysburg and that during that time 1,600 young men had been trained.

Mr. Birchler said "I fought my way into Gettysburg and I'm going to fight to stay here. I've enjoyed living and working here."

He said that his flying instructors had flown more than a million and a quarter miles while training prospective fliers and that not one plane had even been scratched and not a man injured.

He expressed his thanks and gratitude for the courtesies accorded him.

CHANGE DATE OF DEDICATION OF HS HONOR ROLL

Dedication and presentation of the Service Honor Roll at the Gettysburg high school building will take place at public exercises next Thursday evening, May 25, instead of at the annual meeting of the school alumni on the following Monday, it was announced today.

The change in plans for the dedication of the honor roll, which already bears the names of approximately 600 former students now in the armed forces, was voted at a joint meeting of student council and alumni representatives at which it was felt the dedication should be held as a public function instead of one limited to school alumni.

It was emphasized, however, that the new honor roll will be on display at the alumni meeting on Monday evening, May 29, and that special tribute will be paid at that session to alumni serving their nation in the armed forces.

The dedicatory program for next Thursday will be similar to that previously announced for the original date. Dr. Robert A. Bream, an alumnus and now assistant county superintendent of the Adams county schools, will deliver the dedicatory and presentation address. The honor roll will be accepted by Superintendent L. C. Keefauver.

The complete program for the affair will be announced early in the week.

ANNOUNCES PRE-SCHOOL CLINIC FOR BEGINNERS

Superintendent of Schools Lloyd C. Keefauver announced today that a pre-school clinic and registration of beginners for the school term starting next September will be held next Tuesday at the Gettysburg high school building.

Dr. Raymond F. Sheely, school medical adviser, assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth S. Ridder, school nurse, will give each pupil a physical check-up and advise parents concerning any correction needed. The hours are from 9 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon and from 2 to 4 p. m.

"Pupils who will be six years of age before February 1 will be admitted as beginners at the opening of school in September," Superintendent Keefauver said.

Benefits For All
It is hoped that all parents will take advantage of this opportunity to enroll pupils now. It will be a decided benefit to the pupil and to the parent to know the results of the physical check-up so that any necessary corrective steps may be taken during the summer. Success in school is very closely related to the physical well-being of the child.

"It will also be a great help to the school authorities in planning for next year's program to know how many pupils may be expected in the first grade.

"Parents should bring along birth certificates so that the enrolment may be completed Tuesday and will not have to be taken care of in September."

Commander Frazee Takes Sub Into Unnavigable Waters To Rescue 22 Fliers Off Island Of Truk

Nine of the 22 U. S. fliers rescued from the sea during the strike at the Jap base of Truk, April 29-30 were picked up by a Navy observation plane (upper photo), which taxied to the U. S. submarine Tang (lower photo), where the men were taken aboard. Lieutenant Commander Murray B. Frazee, Jr., of Gettysburg, is navigator on the submarine. (AP Wirephoto from U. S. Navy.)

Lieutenant Commander Murray Frazee, mentioned in the appended Associated Press dispatch as the navigator of the submarine Tang which went into uncharted and unnavigable waters to rescue 22 men off Truk, is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis. He is a graduate of Gettysburg high school and attended Gettysburg college, before entering the academy. His father, Major Murray B. Frazee, formerly of Gettysburg, is post exchange officer at Camp Atterbury, Indiana. He arrived in Gettysburg Thursday evening on a brief furlough.

U. S. Submarine Base, Pearl Harbor, May 19 (AP)—Breaking a silence of eight months concerning submarine, told a press conference Wednesday how the submarine completed the rescue, sailed at least one beach at Truk, went into waters which charts showed completely un-navigable—without losing a man from the crew or one of the helpless aviators.

[The Navy public relations officer in San Francisco said O'Kane previously was executive officer of the famed submarine Wahoo which accounted for more than 250,000 tons of enemy shipping before it was sunk. O'Kane's home is San Rafael, California.]

Crowded With Rescued

Upon completion of the work, the submarine was so crowded with rescued men and the boat's crewmen, they had to "hot bunk"—sleep several men to a bed in shifts—on the way back to base.

The Tang's two day saga began April 29, shortly after the first waves of bombers had screamed down to smash Truk's buildings, airfields

FIRST STUDENTS GRADUATE FROM INDUSTRIAL UNIT

Bigerville high school's industrial education program is proving its merit—in the U. S. Army and Navy and in war plants, it was revealed today.

The first "official" class to graduate from the industrial education program at the school consists of only two students, Harold Guise and Norman Lady, who began their instruction three years ago when the 60 by 120 foot brick building housing the industrial education section was completed. The building is a gift to the Bigerville school system from the late C. H. Musselman and Mrs. Musselman. Commencement is on May 29.

Meets War Needs

Designed principally to train future farmers in mechanics to aid them in the multitude of mechanical duties that farmers now have, the course instead, because of the shift caused by the war, has been training mechanics and officers for the armed forces and war industries. Most of the students have been unable to complete the course, having moved immediately into the armed services or having secured war jobs before they secured their diplomas.

One of the students, Wallace Coddington, who received a year's instruction when the class opened and then was called into the armed forces two years ago has now risen to the rank of captain. Harold Lady, another original member of the first class, is now a first lieutenant flying in combat operations. Most of the students took night courses in addition to the regular day work in order to obtain as much of the instruction as possible before being called into service.

Approximately 178 students in all six grades are engaged in taking the instruction each year. The first class to have completed a full six year course will be graduated three years from now.

Popular Course

Many of the students, with a year or two of instruction at Bigerville, have secured employment at Middletown and Hagerstown. Several were sent to Pearl Harbor to help as expert mechanics there. About 20 worked at Glenn L. Martin company, Baltimore, and at the Fairchild plant at Hagerstown, to help build the planes vitally needed by the nation.

The school was originally planned for one teacher, but because of the response the directors added another teacher to the staff. One of the instructors however has joined his students in the U. S. armed forces and Karl Dorfford, originally in charge of woodworking, carpentry, mechanical drawing and blue print work has had all of the work to do since Edgar Benner, instructor in sheet metal work, machine shop studies, welding and forging left for military duty. Leslie V. Stock, principal of the school, said today every effort is being made to secure a replacement for Mr. Benner for next year.

The course is compulsory for youngsters in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, and is an elective major in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades. So far it appears that most students will continue on for the last three years, after having had their earlier training in grades seven through nine.

The program will get underway at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning with registration under the direction of the Barlow club. Each member will be presented with a bow at time of registration and under the rules for the game to be held in conjunction with the registration must refuse to say "yes" no matter what question is asked by another member.

Miss Mildred L. Adams, county home economics extension representative, in announcing the program for the event said that every club will take some part in the camp.

Each member will be presented with a bow at time of registration and under the rules for the game to be held in conjunction with the registration must refuse to say "yes" no matter what question is asked by another member.

Alied warships poured shells against enemy batteries, dumps and roads west of that point yesterday in close support of the ground forces.

In addition to bombing and strafing the Germans in the battle area, Allied air forces yesterday struck into the Balkans. Heavy bombers attacked the Romanian oil refineries at Ploesti and rail yards in Yugoslavia at Belgrade and Niš, and in Romania at Turnu-Severin. At least 13 of more than 100 German fighters encountered at Ploesti were shot down, headquarters said.

4-H Clubs To Meet

A "Cheerio" game is scheduled from 10:30 to 11 o'clock under the direction of the New Chester club. From 11 to 11:30 o'clock the Granite Hill club will present a "Breakfast at Sardi's" program. The Good Hope club is in charge of a guessing contest to be held from 11:30 to 12 noon. From 12 to 1 p. m. a picnic lunch will be served with the Hampton club in charge of tables. Singing will be led by the York Springs club from 1 to 1:15 and the Barlow club will present a skit from 1:15 to 1:30 o'clock. Brushtown's club will have charge of a spelling bee from 1:30 to 2 and Round Top's club will

ALLIED SUCCESS MAY BRING HELP FROM NEUTRALS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)
Continued success of the Allied drive in Italy will be bound to have a salutary effect on the European neutrals and wretched Axis satellites.

Indeed, when the Allied invasion of western Europe has been successfully inaugurated, and the assault on Hitler's fortress is under way from all sides, we're likely to see a sharp swing of the neutrals and Hitlerian partners towards the United Nations. This is the main idea, it strikes me, of the offensive in Italy—to repair the damage done to Allied prestige by the delay in cracking the Gustav line which now has been obliterated.

Strong-Arm Methods

The point is, of course, that most of these little countries haven't been masters of their own fates but have been sitting under the Fuehrer's big guns. Once the Nazi devil is trapped and their security is guaranteed, their moral support—and in some cases active aid—is likely to be flung to the Allies.

Pending the arrival of that favorable moment, the big three—America, Britain and Russia—are compelled to use strong-arm methods in the cases of neutrals who are giving invaluable aid to Hitler. Among the most urgent cases is that of Sweden whose export trade with Germany includes ball bearings, which are among the most vital of war material.

Pressure from the big three, both intimations of economic sanctions and offers to purchase Sweden's entire output of ball bearings, has failed to move Stockholm. The situation has become so acute that the U. S. War Department is said to be urging stern measures.

Why does Stockholm take this stand? The answer from what I understand to be the Swedish viewpoint is interesting, though unsatisfactory to the big three at this most crucial moment of the World War.

They tell us that the vast majority of the Swedish people are with the Allies at heart. The reason they're not in the war on our side is because they have, right up to now, been faced with these hard alternatives—either to maintain neutrality or commit national suicide. One hostile gesture from Sweden and Hitler would have treated her as he did Norway and the rest.

Germany's pay for not attacking Sweden has been essential imports from the latter. It also has suited his purpose to sell Sweden necessities like coal, chemicals and iron. In this connection it's important to note that the Nazis control Swedish waters and that only by Hitler's permission could the Swedes import anything from abroad by sea. It's through his permission that Sweden has been allowed to bring oil and gasoline from the western hemisphere in her own tankers.

It's through his permission that Sweden has been allowed to bring oil and gasoline from the western hemisphere in her own tankers.

We've now reached the point where danger of attack by Germany has sufficiently lessened so that the Swedes might venture to cut off all trade with the Reich—if the Allies could replace essential Swedish imports. Stoppage of Swedish exports to Germany would mean immediate cessation of Nazi exports to Sweden, and the Scandinavian neutral maintains that without these necessities she couldn't long hold out.

In view of these circumstances the offer of the Allies to buy all Sweden's ball bearings doesn't help from her viewpoint. The minute she cuts off ball bearing shipments to the Reich, all German exports to Sweden cease in short. Stockholm apparently feels that it would be suicidal to stop trade with Germany until the Allies are able to guarantee Sweden's vital supplies.

That day may not be far off.

HARBOR REPAIR SHIP READIED

Philadelphia, May 19 (AP)—The engineer corps crew of the Army's USS Junior Van Noy began to get in practice today for clearing the Hitler-wrecked harbors of Europe. The Van Noy, first of a fleet of port repair ships, rode placidly in dock on the Delaware river—awaiting her christening Saturday—while soldiers loaded generators into hatches, lowered divers to the murky river depths and practiced fire control in preparation for reconstructing demolished ports for the Yanks.

The job will present unpredictable problems, says Salvage Wrecking Officer Capt. Ralph R. Buscell of Claremont, N. H. "The only sure bet is that retreating Nazis will do as much damage as possible."

Buscell explained today that the Van Noy may be called upon to haul locomotives, scuttled vessels and other sunken equipment away from docks and into deep water in order to clear harbors for Allied forces.

The ship is equipped with carpenter, welding, electrical repair, sheet metal and machine shops, portable generators and acetylene lighting systems, five booms capable of lifting from 10 to 30 tons, a 21-unit pontoon system and special diving equipment for underwater cutting and welding.

HARBOUR REPAIR SHIP READIED

HARBOR REPAIR SHIP READIED

Philadelphia, May 19 (AP)—The engineer corps crew of the Army's USS Junior Van Noy began to get in practice today for clearing the Hitler-wrecked harbors of Europe. The Van Noy, first of a fleet of four repair ships, rode placidly in dock on the Delaware river—awaiting her christening Saturday—while soldiers loaded generators into hatches, lowered divers to the murky river depths and practiced fire control in preparation for reconstructing demolished ports for the Yanks.

The job will present unpredictable problems, says Salvage Wrecking Officer Capt. Ralph R. Buscell of Claremont, N. H. The only sure bet is that retreating Nazis will do as much damage as possible.

Buscell explained today that the Van Noy may be called upon to haul locomotives, scuttled vessels and other sunken equipment away from docks and into deep water in order to clear harbors for Allied ships.

The ship is equipped with carpenter, welding, electrical repair, sheet metal and machine shops, portable generators and acetylene lighting systems, five booms capable of lifting from 10 to 30 tons, a 21-unit pontoon system and special diving equipment for underwater cutting and welding.

Pittsburgh, May 19 (AP)—A "spiritual awakening" in America to fight a tide of "greed, recklessness and riotous living," is necessary, Gov. Edward Martin believes, to prevent chaotic post-war conditions.

Speaking before alumni of Western Theological seminary here last night, he said:

"America must look to its spiritual leaders as well as to its generals if we are to win the fight for humanity."

"We all remember the tide of greed, recklessness and riotous living that swept all the world in the wake of World War I. We are heading toward a repetition of that trend. Increasing juvenile delinquency is causing wide alarm. These are not matters merely to talk about. They are threats to our future as a nation. Families, churches, individuals and governments all must help to solve them."

SENATORS DOWN CLEVELAND TO NEAR TOP SPOT

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer Clark Griffith's night life diet has fattened the Washington treasury by some 100,000 admissions and today has lifted the Senators into a virtual tie with the Yankees for the American league lead.

Lodged in sixth place in early season after pre-campaign dopests had touted them as the club New York and the rest of the loop had to beat the Latin-tinted Nats have won 12 of their last 16, and six out of eight since they turned on the lights at Griffith stadium.

Today's standings show them with one more win, and one more loss, than New York, although nine points back in the percentage tables, after last night's 4-2 nod over Cleveland.

Roger Wolff, Johnny Niggeling and Mickey Haefner have been three-time winners since the spurt started and Dutch Leonard added his third straight victory of the campaign last night on one big four-run inning.

QUOTE, UNQUOTE

Arnold S. Denker: "All the time I was winning the National chess title, I kept thinking about the lug that touted me off 'Pensive."

A ROOKIE A DAY

Augie Bergamo, Cardinals' outfielder: Augie isn't a regular now, but with Stan Musial and Dan Litwhaler listening for Uncle Sam's call he figures to become an important figure in the Cards' plans. Up from Columbus where he led the American Association in drawing passes and tied for the lead in hitting two baggers. Compiled a .324 batting average with plenty of clutch hits. In 1939 Augie didn't hit a homer for Columbus, Ga., until the last day of the season but that blow won the pennant by a hair.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Sun Again is the third $100,000 winner bred by Warren Wright. Pensieve, the Derby-Preakness winner, also has earned more than 100 G's but wasn't bred at Calumet farm.

Red Faber, the old White Sox pitcher, will be chief coach at a four-week baseball school sponsored by the Oak Park, Ill., playground board next month. Bucky Walters has started 201 games since he joined the Reds in 1938 and has finished 146 of them.

SERVICE DEPT.

Sportcaster Marty Glickman, the old Syracuse U. sprinter and footballer, has just been commissioned 2nd Lieut. in the Marines. Capt. Phil Edwards, former New York U. track star, is a member of the laboratory staff at St. Anne's hospital in Montreal and still shows enough interest in running to get out at 6 a.m. and coach some Canadian Wacs...

LAST QUESTION

Has Judge Landis ruled yet on how and when those "incomplete" games should be counted in the pools that pay off on total scores for the week?

11 Teams To Enter S.E. Grid Conference

Jackson, Miss., May 19 (AP) — The Southeastern Football conference, blighted by war drains on its manpower since Pearl Harbor, plans to field teams from 11 of its 12 schools this fall.

Vanderbilt alone probably will not take on conference teams.

Coaches of the 11 schools aren't all talkative about available material, but evidently their hopes are being built around youngsters, 4-F's and discharged veterans.

CHANGE BOUNTY RATES IN STATE

Harrisburg, May 19 (AP) — The State Game Commission has declined to place a bounty on red foxes in Pennsylvania, although it doubled that on weasels—50 cents to $1—and offered $4 for each adult great horned owl and $2 for each fledgling owl taken after July 15.

Ross L. Leffler, commission president, said no monetary inducement for the removal of red foxes was set because "the commission believes that the greatly increased popularity of fox hunting, and the intensi-stated to the active list, drove home Babe Dahlgren with the decisive score.

New York at Chicago was postponed on account of cold weather.

LAURELS AND BARONS TIED

(By The Associated Press)

The Hartford Laurels proved they were rugged as well as persistent and today were tied with the Wilkes-Barre Barons for first place in the Eastern league. Figid temperatures failed to deter the Laurels last night and they wrapped up a 6-2 triumph at Elmira behind the six-hitter of Bob Marshall.

The victory climaxed a steady climb by Manager Del Bissonette's outfit from the second division.

Marshall faced only nine batters in the last three innings. One man reached first on a walk but was erased via a doubleplay. Ackley, shortstop, with three for five, including two doubles, and Shupe, first baseman, with three for four, including triple, led the Hartford offensive.

Juan (Chico) Hernandez, Venezuelan righthander, led the Williamsport Grays to a 9-6 victory over the Albany Senators. The South American doled out only two hits in the first five innings, but weakened and was nicked for five runs in the ninth before he retired the side.

The present $4 bounty on gray foxes was continued while the $2 reward for adult goshawks and $1 bounty for fledglings was extended for the entire year instead of between November 1 and May 31 only.

The commission described great horned owls as "one of the worst enemies of wildlife" and reported they are "very abundant" in some sections.

The change from ape to man is infinitesimal compared with that from a reptile to a mammal.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

New York, May 19 (AP) — Since the death of Lord Lonsdale, the great British sportsman, boxing folks have been wondering if anyone will continue the custom of giving belts to champions who successfully defend their titles three times . . . These awards have been made for over 100 years and in that time only about a half dozen have been won outright . . . Incidentally, Nat Fleischer, who hands out trophies in America on a wider scale, figures he owes belts to Manuel Ortiz and Willie Pep as the only real champions crowned since most titles were frozen for the duration. . . . When Jolly Cholly Grimm took over the Cubs' management at the 10-loss mark, he wasn't exactly undergoing a new experience. Grimm broke in with the Athletics in 1916 when they were in the throes of a 20-game losing streak.

Six Win In 10th

Chicago's Thurman Tucker belted New York out of a 10-inning ball game, 8-4, when he tripled with the bases loaded off relief man Em Roser. Ernie Bonham was raked for 14 hits before he retired in the ninth after Wally Moses' circuit clout tied the score. Hal Trostky, continuing his successful comeback, moved into a tie in the home run Derby with No. 5.

Rufe Gentry blanked Philadelphia with nine hits and batted in the only run of Detroit's 1-0 triumph over Don Black, and Oscar Judd clubbed two hits and scored three times while going the route for the first time in Boston's 12-1 swamping of St. Louis.

In the National Al Javerry added another link to his tough luck chain by dropping a two-hitter to St. Louis. Javerry, who has lost five in row but never yielded more than four runs, blew this one on the first hit, a single by Whitey Kurowski driving in two runs for a 2-0 edge in the seventh. George Munger scattered five blows for his fourth triumph.

Walters Stopped

Ken Raffensberger of the Phils didn't quite match Javerry in his three-hit effort at Cincinnati but he managed to win and snap Bucky Walters' streak at five by a 2-0 score.

Rube Melton of Brooklyn white-washed Pittsburgh for eight innings but the Pirates got after him and Reliever Bill Lohrman for four runs and a 4-3 victory before a man was retired in the ninth. Coach Spud Davis, recently reinstated to the active list, drove home Babe Dahlgren with the decisive score.

New York at Chicago was postponed on account of cold weather.

Wish that I were farmer-wise.
As competent as he!

Reading weather from the skies.

Knowing vine and bush and tree.

All I know are cars and buses.

City streets of brick and stone.

Stuff some oracle discusses,

Radio and the telephone.

Wish I were as smart as he!

Wheat from barley he can tell.

Knows the ways of bird and bee.

Knows where quail and pheasant dwell.

All I know are steel and granite.

Things and pavements heavy laid.

And I go about this planet.

Ignorant of leaf and blade.

Wish as self-reliant I

As the farmer, here could be!

Could myself my needs supply.

Food and fire from field and tree.

But the bread I eat I buy.

And when things I have to mend.

Since so little skill have I.

For a stranger I must send.

Wish on speaking terms I stood.

As the farmer, night and day.

With my own small neighborhood.

And with him in truth could say:

"Here with 'su' and 'rain' and soil,

And my willingness to toil,

I can face life unafraid."

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Graf Zeppelin Is Fighting for Her Life over France! Le Bourget Field, France, May 17.—Crippled and in the grip of violent winds, the trans-Atlantic air liner Graf Zeppelin was in serious danger late today as she struggled to reach some safe haven in southeastern France.

The huge ship carrying a crew of 40 men and 18 passengers was being swept from the Rhone Valley toward the barren foothills of the French Alps.

Returns for Tests: Cuers, France, May 18 (AP)—Regardless of all talk about changing motors and of being ready within two weeks or so to start again over the Atlantic, it was determined that Doctor Eckner would not take the Zeppelin on any such voyage until it had gone back to Friedrichshafen and had been thoroughly overhauled by a group of specialists there.

New Specialist Located Here: Dr. W. S. Mountain has begun the practice of his profession in the offices on Chambersburg street, formerly occupied by Dr. George H. Seeks. Doctor Mountain is on the staff at the Warner hospital.

Nurses Hear Doctor Hanson: Doctor Henry Hanson delivered the commencement address at the graduating exercises of the nurses' training school of the Harrisburg hospital held in the John Harris high school Thursday evening.

Miss Clara McCleaf of Gettysburg, was among those who received diplomas. She was awarded a prize for the greatest improvement in classroom work and nursing.

To Attend Convention: The Rev. N. L. Horn, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, and T. J. Winebrenner, lay delegate, will leave on Tuesday for Indianapolis to attend the annual convention of the General Synod of the Reformed church.

The obvious thing to do is usually the right thing to do! Most of us forget this, and waste a great deal of time and energy in beating around the bush, merely experimenting without thinking. It is important, however, to do something when the impulse comes to us in an idea or good deed. This DO—should be our motto.

We may even do the wrong thing, but even that can be forgiven or overlooked. But to do nothing merits no forgiveness. Every forceful character is imbued with action. "This I will do!" That is what starts things humming.

You recall that the Prodigal Son, after his turn at wild living, got to thinking it all over and finally said to himself: "I will arise — and go to my father!" And suiting the action to the decision, he went—and was welcomed by the father, who anxiously awaited his return.

To quote Jesus again, He said: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel." How futile are our lives without action of any useful sort! A wonderful plan at the beginning of each day would be to say: "This DO"—and then, with plans in mind, Go and put them to work!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Enjoyment Of Beauty."

Workers Stranded By Drivers' Strike

Norristown, Pa., May 19 (AP)—Thousands of workers were stranded on street-corners or arrived late for work in war plants today as a strike of 56 drivers tied up all buses of the Schuylkill Valley Lines, Inc., principal transportation company serving 100,000 persons in highly industrialized Norristown and about 20 suburbs.

The walkout developed unexpectedly and thousands hitch-hiked rides, walked or returned to their homes after waiting as long as two hours for buses.

Spokesmen said today they had been promised quick action on their grievances at the time of the previous walkout but that no adjustments had been made.

Chapter 19

"Why, the count came from New York," Zelda answered innocently, and picked up her coat and started toward the stairs.

Cora pushed her glasses into position. "How did he know we were up here?"

"He didn't know we were up here. He called Pete's apartment to ask Pete where I was, and the maid told him that Pete was up here. Then he had a hunch that maybe I was up here too."

"Oh," said Cora, a little bit let-down. Then, "But even so, Zelda, I can't see how you can have forgotten the way he acted that night, leaving us flat during the raid on The Beanstalk."

Zelda stopped. Then she came back. "Now see here, Cora, you may as well get used to the count and make up your mind to like him. He has explained everything to me satisfactorily. And beside, he's noticed that you dislike him and it makes him unhappy."

"Good," sniffed Cora.

"If a mere male is allowed a word," Pete said, "how does he justify his actions that night at The Beanstalk, Zelda?"

"Well," Zelda hesitated. "I really shouldn't tell you—but you're being so difficult I'll have to. The fact is, Teddy's in this country on a secret mission."

"What kind of a secret mission?" Cora asked.

"I don't know. If I knew it would not be secret, would it? It's in connection with the war, that's all I know about it. Under the circumstances he didn't want to be questioned by the police. Naturally it is important that he doesn't attract any attention to himself."

"'Natural,'" commented Pete, his face expressionless.

FRAZEE

and military installations, the submarine was patrolling nearby, when she was notified one bomber was down a short distance off the reef.

The submarine crew found Lieutenant (jg) Scott Scammon, 2nd, Yardley, Pa.; Radioman Second Class Harry Gemmill, Philadelphia; Machinist Mate Second Class Joseph D. Gendron, Oakland, Calif., floating in their rubber boats and fished them out of the water unhurt.

HELP WANTED

NEXT the submarine laid off the reef watching, while efforts were made to rescue Lieutenant (jg) Robert Kanze, of Freehold, N. J., shot down inside the lagoon as he chased a Japanese fighter over the enemy's anti-aircraft guns. Working to save Kanze and three other downed pilots, were two Kingfisher catapult planes, one piloted by Lieutenant (jg) John Burns of Wynnewood, Pa., with his radioman, Aubrey James Gill of San Francisco, and the other by Lieutenant Joseph Dowdle, Wilmot, Ill., with Radioman Robert E. Hill, of Weldon, Texas.

For luck, the Tang shelled the beaches at Olan island when one had forced the submarine to pass close inshore. On the first trip past Olan, OKane said the shore batteries replied to the submarine deck gun ineffectively. In a half dozen subsequent trips in the same area, the shore guns remained silent.

GOING CRAZY

The second morning of rescue work started with Kanze's actual rescue, plus Hill and Dowdle whose plane had overturned and sunk when Kanze tried to climb aboard. While this was underway, the submarine's crewmen saw another bomber go into the ocean.

While this pickup was under way, the Tang had a call from the eastern side of the island. Enroute to this rescue, it spotted an additional downed pilot in the bight of Kuop island. The Tang went in after him.

OKane said the navigator—that's Lieutenant Commander Murray Fraze, Gettysburg, Pa.—was going crazy. That water was supposed to be unnavigable but I could see the reef was well ahead of us, so we went on."

Officer A Noted Swimmer

Lieutenant (jg) Scott Scammon, 2nd, of Yardley, Pa., undoubtedly had a chance, during his two days afloat in the waters off Truk, to use the powerful backstroke which he developed during four years of varsity swimming at Princeton university.

Scammon, father of a two-month-old daughter, Sue, whom he has never seen, swam for Mercersburg academy before entering Princeton and, before that, took part in various sports at Trenton high school.

He was to have entered Harvard law school in 1941 but, instead, was commissioned an ensign and assigned to the Naval Bureau of Aeronautics in Washington.

WORLD'S FAIR

GettysburgOREGON VOTING
FOR DELEGATES
AT POLLS TODAYBy JACK BELL
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

The rank and file's chance to designate its choice for the Republican presidential nomination arrived in a strategic place today—Oregon's preferential primary where write-in balloting will pledge that state's 14 convention votes to the winner.

Although the Oregon delegation to the GOP meeting is relatively small, the psychological stakes are high since the winner will be credited with grass roots support in a northwestern area expected to be a battle ground between the two major parties in November.

Results Important

As elsewhere, the leading candidates apparently are Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, who says he isn't in the race; Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, who says he is, and Lieut. Comdr. Harold E. Stassen, who says he will run if he is nominated. Some write-in strength also is expected to show for Wendell L. Willkie, who quit the race.

A victory for Dewey, who has demonstrated strength on write-in votes in Nebraska and Pennsylvania, would boost him along in a race where he already has captured the support of 324 of the 898 Republican delegates thus far chosen. Victory for Bricker, who has 56 delegates, would indicate a change in the tide which seems to have been running toward Dewey and make Bricker a strong challenger for the backing of those who remain uninstructed.

Double Senate Fight

The Dewey total was inching up last night when District of Columbia Republicans in convention instructed their three delegates to vote for him.

For the first time this year both of a state's senatorial seats are involved in the Oregon primaries, with Rufus C. Holman, Republican, seeking renomination for the regular term, and Guy Gordon, Republican appointed to serve after the death of Senator Charles L. McNary, seeking nomination to fill out the McNary term which expires in 1949.

Holman is opposed by Wayne L. Morse, former public member of the War Labor Board, and Gordon is battling with former Gov. Charles A. Sprague for the short term nomination.

POSTHUMOUS MEDAL GIVEN MRS. SPRECHER

Mrs Pearl Sprecher, Gettysburg, was presented Friday evening with the air medal posthumously awarded her son, Sgt. Wayne G. Sprecher, lost in action in the Pacific theater.

The medal was given Mrs. Sprecher by Lt. Col. Willis F. Daniels, of the Adjutant General's office, Middletown, at an educational meeting held at the court house for men about to be inducted into the armed forces from Adams county.

A color guard of the local American Legion stood at attention flanking the center of the court room as Colonel Daniels presented Mrs. Sprecher with the award and read the citation accompanying it.

Special Citation

The medal was given for meritorious achievement while participating in an aerial flight on March 3, 1943, according to the citation, which added, "A flight of two B-17's participated in a bombing mission against a convoy of enemy warships and cargo vessels. The crews made the bombing runs at an altitude of 7,000 feet through intense anti-aircraft fire from the protecting warships. Despite all this, two direct hits were scored with 1,000-pound bombs from the first plane and almost simultaneously two more hits were scored by the second plane. The vessel appeared to burst into pieces and sank in five minutes. The B-17's were then attacked by five Zeros which were successfully repulsed by the gunners. The determination and bravery displayed during the attack is in keeping with the finest traditions of the service."

Sergeant Sprecher was an aerial gunner in one of the two B-17's mentioned in the citation, and was apparently killed on one of his next few missions according to word received here by the parents. The citation was signed by Brig. Gen. Robert H. Dunlop, acting, the Adjutant General.

Judge Presides

Sergeant Sprecher entered service July 26, 1941, and was a member of an air combat crew in the southwest Pacific. On April 2, 1943, his parents received word that he was "missing in action."

Now missing for a year, the War Department has listed him as presumed dead.

Judge W. C. Sheely presided at the inductees' meeting at which L. D. Strader, American Red Cross field director; Lt. Commander Strong Boozer of the Mechanicsburg Naval Depot and Lt. Col. Daniels were the speakers.

Advice For Inductees

The American Legion color guard for the meeting included Lawrence Sheds, George Boehmer, Joseph E. Smith and Paul Spangler. E. A. Moser, Jr., was the bugler.

All of the speakers urged the men to make allowances for their families within the first 15 days they are in the service. While they can make allotments at any time, or the families at home can secure the allotments, "the allowances come through much faster if you make application as soon as you enter the service."

Dependency allotments can also be made for parents when allotments are made for wife and children, it was said. The Army pays the first allotment within a few days after the inductee applies for it at the induction center. The second allotment is made within 60 or 90 days. The Navy's first allotment is sent out within about 60 days after application is made, it was stated.

Emergency furloughs can be granted in the event of great need for almost all men in the service, even if they have just entered the induction center. Mr. Strader asserted.

$900 Damage In Truck Collision

Damage estimated at $900 was caused Monday morning when a gasoline truck and a car collided at an intersection in Midway about 8 o'clock. Private George Ackerson of the Gettysburg substation of the state police investigated and charged one of the drivers, Bernard C. Schuhart, 351 Third street, Hanover, with making a left turn in the face of oncoming traffic.

Schuhart, who was driving the gasoline truck, intended to make a left turn, he told the officer, but was blinded by the sun and failed to see the approaching car of William E. Rinehart, 217 High street, Hanover. Schuhart began his left turn, saw Rinehart and tried to swerve right but the machines struck head-on.

A charge against Schuhart was filed before Justice of the Peace L. G. Kuhn, Conewago township.

Gets 30 Days For Refusing To Fight Fire

Charged with refusing to help fight a forest fire in Hamiltonian township on Thursday, May 4, Harry Carbaugh, aged about 22, Fayetteville R. D., was arrested Saturday by Private Leon R. Geiger, state policeman stationed at South Mountain, and Constable L. D. Kauffman, a fire warden.

Arraigned before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore, Carbaugh was quoted as admitting he had refused to obey the orders of Officer Geiger when he was directed to help battle a blaze on the east slopes of the South Mountain. He said he had refused because he did not want to "spoil my good clothes."

The Justice imposed a $50 fine. In default of payment of the fine, Carbaugh was sent to jail for 30 days.

COUNTY WOMAN BADLY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Seven persons were injured, one seriously, and damage was estimated at $750 in a head-on collision of automobiles at 8:30 o'clock Monday night on the Pine Grove Furnace-Caledonia road, 1½ miles north of Caledonia. State police are continuing the investigation.

Mrs. Mary Wenk, 88, Gardners, was said to be in an "unfavorable" condition with internal injuries at the Chambersburg hospital, where all the injured were taken for treatment.

Mrs. Wenk was riding in an automobile driven by her son-in-law, Mervin Heller, 60, of Pine Grove Furnace, who State police said, told them he was blinded by the lights on an oncoming car and his auto moved to the left of the center of the highway on a curve.

Other passengers in the Heller car and their injuries were: Mrs. Bertha Heller, 58, wife of the driver, laceration of the left ear; Miss Mary Heller, 25, laceration above the left eye and a fracture of the right wrist; Leslie M. Heller Starr, 2, bump on the forehead.

The second vehicle, containing three Chambersburg youths who had attended a meeting of the Hi-Y organization in Pine Grove Furnace, as representatives of the Chambersburg high school units, was driven by John Harvey Allen. He received abrasions of the knee and a bruise of the forehead. Other passengers in the Allen car and their injuries were: Richard Blair, 17, lacerations of the scalp and right arm; Walter Oliver, lacerations of the right leg. The three youths returned to their homes after being treated in the hospital dispensary.

C. A. BIXLER IS PRESIDENT OF HOSPITAL BD.

Charged with refusing to help fight a forest fire in Hamiltonian township on Thursday, May 4, Harry Carbaugh, aged about 22, Fayetteville R. D., was arrested Saturday by Private Leon R. Geiger, state policeman stationed at South Mountain, and Constable L. D. Kauffman, a fire warden.

Arraigned before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore, Carbaugh was quoted as admitting he had refused to obey the orders of Officer Geiger when he was directed to help battle a blaze on the east slopes of the South Mountain. He said he had refused because he did not want to "spoil my good clothes."

The Justice imposed a $50 fine. In default of payment of the fine, Carbaugh was sent to jail for 30 days.

Special Citation

The medal was given for meritorious achievement while participating in an aerial flight on March 3, 1943, according to the citation, which added, "A flight of two B-17's participated in a bombing mission against a convoy of enemy warships and cargo vessels. The crews made the bombing runs at an altitude of 7,000 feet through intense anti-aircraft fire from the protecting warships. Despite all this, two direct hits were scored with 1,000-pound bombs from the first plane and almost simultaneously two more hits were scored by the second plane. The vessel appeared to burst into pieces and sank in five minutes. The B-17's were then attacked by five Zeros which were successfully repulsed by the gunners. The determination and bravery displayed during the attack is in keeping with the finest traditions of the service."

Sergeant Sprecher was an aerial gunner in one of the two B-17's mentioned in the citation, and was apparently killed on one of his next few missions according to word received here by the parents. The citation was signed by Brig. Gen. Robert H. Dunlop, acting, the Adjutant General.

Judge Presides

Sergeant Sprecher entered service July 26, 1941, and was a member of an air combat crew in the southwest Pacific. On April 2, 1943, his parents received word that he was "missing in action."

Now missing for a year, the War Department has listed him as presumed dead.

Judge W. C. Sheely presided at the inductees' meeting at which L. D. Strader, American Red Cross field director; Lt. Commander Strong Boozer of the Mechanicsburg Naval Depot and Lt. Col. Daniels were the speakers.

Advice For Inductees

The American Legion color guard for the meeting included Lawrence Sheds, George Boehmer, Joseph E. Smith and Paul Spangler. E. A. Moser, Jr., was the bugler.

All of the speakers urged the men to make allowances for their families within the first 15 days they are in the service. While they can make allotments at any time, or the families at home can secure the allotments, "the allowances come through much faster if you make application as soon as you enter the service."

Dependency allotments can also be made for parents when allotments are made for wife and children, it was said. The Army pays the first allotment within a few days after the inductee applies for it at the induction center. The second allotment is made within 60 or 90 days. The Navy's first allotment is sent out within about 60 days after application is made, it was stated.

Emergency furloughs can be granted in the event of great need for almost all men in the service, even if they have just entered the induction center. Mr. Strader asserted.

MISS KOCH IS "MAY QUEEN"

Miss Mary Louise Koch, Hazleton, a senior at Gettysburg college, was crowned May Queen Saturday afternoon at the annual May Day exercises in Stahley Gardens on the Woman's Division campus which this year combined campus observance of Mother's Day and Father's Day.

A crowd estimated at more than 350 persons saw Miss Kathleen Flinchbaugh, of York, last year's May queen at the college, crown her successor. Miss Margaret Harvey, Camp Hill, was the queen's maid of honor. Her court, which had been announced previously, included Miss Jane Spangler, freshman, of near Gettysburg. Queen's attendants included Sigie Wagnild and Carol Sue Heiges, East Lincoln avenue.

Moving-up exercises, the May Pole dance and a ceremony in which the retiring women's student council headed by Miss Beatrice Fyle, turned over campus affairs to the incoming council led by Miss Nancy Irle were included in the afternoon's program.

In the evening, in the gymnasium, eight women's groups on the campus presented skits with first prize going to that given by the Chi Omega sorority. First honorable mention went to Jackson Hall. Activity awards were distributed and the scholarship cup was won by the Delta Gamma group.

17-Month-Old Girl Is Crushed To Death Under Tractor Wheel

Ruth Jean Fox, 17-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Fox, Franklin township, was fatally injured Saturday evening at the Fox home near Cashtown when her skull was crushed under a rear wheel of a farm tractor operated by her father.

After the evening meal, Mr. Fox left the house about 6 o'clock to back the tractor into a shed. Apparently Ruth Jean followed him and while the father watched on one side of the machine where a neighbor boy stood, the other rear wheel struck and fatally injured his youngest child. He did not know the child had left the house until he saw her body lying on the ground in front of the tractor. She died instantly.

"The presence of every member of the committee is essential," the county chairman added. "This drive will be the Invasion Drive, in which we will back up the 3,000 countants in the armed forces and our nation's armies as they prepare for what is expected to be the most costly engagement of the war—the invasion of the European continent against the German armies."

The Invasion War Bond Drive will begin June 12 and extend to July 8, with the sale of Series E, F, and G bonds from June 1 to July 31 to be counted in the quota.

The militia unit will march in three parades Sunday, May 28, and in two parades May 30. ## POSTHUMOUS MEDAL GIVEN MRS. SPRECHER

Mrs. Pearl Sprecher, Gettysburg, was presented Friday evening with the air medal posthumously awarded her son, Sgt. Wayne G. Sprecher, lost in action in the Pacific theater.

The medal was given Mrs. Sprecher by Lt. Col. Willis F. Daniels, of the Adjutant General's office, Middletown, at an educational meeting held at the court house for men about to be inducted into the armed forces from Adams county.

A color guard of the local American Legion stood at attention flanking the center of the court room as Colonel Daniels presented Mrs. Sprecher with the award and read the citation accompanying it.

Special Citation

The medal was given for meritorious achievement while participating in an aerial flight on March 3, 1943, according to the citation, which added, "A flight of two B-17's participated in a bombing mission against a convoy of enemy warships and cargo vessels. The determination and bravery displayed during the attack is in keeping with the finest traditions of the service."

Mrs. Mary Wenk, 88, Gardners, was said to be in an "unfavorable" condition with internal injuries at the Chambersburg hospital, where all the injured were taken for treatment.

Sergeant Sprecher was an aerial gunner in one of the two B-17s mentioned in the citation, and was apparently killed on one of his next few missions according to word received here by the parents. The citation was signed by Brig. Gen. Robert H. Dunlop, acting, the Adjutant General.

Damage estimated at $900 was caused Monday morning when a gasoline truck and a car collided at an intersection in Midway about 8 o'clock. Schuhart, 351 Third street, Hanover, with making a left turn in the face of oncoming traffic.

Schuhart, who was driving the gasoline truck, intended to make a left turn, he told the officer, but was blinded by the sun and failed to see the approaching car of William E. Rinehart, 217 High street, Hanover. Schuhart began his left turn, saw Rinehart and tried to swerve right but the machine struck head-on.

A charge against Schuhart was filed before Justice of the Peace L. G. Kuhn, Conewago township.

SEES SERVICE WITH BRITISH FOR 16 MONTHS

Charles H. "Junie" Huber, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Doughtery, Gettysburg, has been promoted to the rank of corporal as of May 15. He has completed 15 months of service in the Army and is stationed with the 137th Service Unit in Harrisburg.

He received the Good Conduct award in February upon completion of a year's service.

Young Huber enlisted in the American Field Service, a non-combat organization sponsored by Americans for service with the British, in November, 1942. Volunteers in the organization are all American young men with a 4-F classification.

Each must have a

minimum of $250 cash for equipment and must take care of his own expenses until he reaches his destination. Then he receives an allowance of $20 per month. Their period of enlistment is for one year.

68 IN GROUP

Huber and 67 other young Americans (comprising Unit 37), six with one leg, 14 with only one eye, sailed from New York aboard the "Atlantis" hospital ship in January, 1943. Sixty-five days later they steamed through the Suez canal after stopping at Durban, South Africa, where they boarded a convoy that sailed through the Indian ocean and Red sea into the Suez canal.

The charts showing that the state standard scale for distribution of relief to needy persons in Adams county is considerably below actual costs of minimum needs with the single exception of allotments for food, which were last increased last June, were displayed to the members of the county Board of Assistance at their May meeting last Thursday evening in the board offices on North Washington street, Gettysburg.

The charts were shown by the executive director, Mrs. Verna H. Myers, who pointed out that the scale upon which relief is distributed here is fixed by the state and that any change to bring allotments nearer to actual living costs for the recipients will have to come from Harrisburg.

Mrs. Myers told the board that the current total relief load of 669 cases is 30 less than the total for the comparable date in 1943.

Currently there are 440 old age assistance cases receiving aid through the Adams county office; blind pensions to 76, aid for dependent children in 86 cases and 67 general assistance cases, she reported.

The director reported to the board that she attended a supervisors' institute at Harrisburg on Wednesday and Thursday and that other similar two-day conferences will follow at two-week intervals. The next will be on May 24 and 25. More than 15 counties were represented at the conference which was conducted under the training division of the Department of Public Assistance. Case work is discussed under the direction of Miss Helen Myer of Carnegie Tech.

Stuart Danner, chairman of the board, presided at the meeting with H. H. Reuning and Mrs. R. S. Saby in attendance.

Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin A. Reber, formerly of New Oxford and now of Hanover. Sergeant Reber recently returned from England where he spent 18 months as an administrative clerk for a heavy bombardment group. He is now stationed at the Stuttgart, Arkansas, Army Air Field.

An alteration last Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock on Third street in Midway during the course of which a shotgun was discharged resulted Saturday in the arrest of Floyd W. Funkhouser, 29, Hanover, on charges of disorderly conduct and malicious mischief to property.

The charges were laid before Justice of the Peace L. G. Kuhn, Conewago township, by Pvt. Robert Dietrich of the Gettysburg station of the state police who also made the arrest.

Funkhouser, who told the officer he did not know the name of the other person involved in the fracas, paid a $5 fine and the costs on the disorderly conduct count and entered a plea of guilty on the other charge on which he was released Saturday evening under $300 bail for court.

The officer said the charge from the shotgun peppered the front of the home of Felix Funk, Midway. One window was broken but no one was hurt. Funk estimated that the lead shot caused about $50 damage to his property.

Five minutes after the firemen returned to the engine house, they received the call to the Brough farm.

Pfc. Calvin E. Heintzelman has arrived in England according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heintzelman, Gett

Three Adams county soldiers, Doyle Reiter, Cashtown; G. Noel Flynn, Gettysburg, and Roy Hartzel, Biglerville R. 2, recently met in Italy where all three are stationed.

Staff Sergeant Felix entered the armed forces on August 1, 1942. He trained at St. Petersburg, Fla.; Sioux Falls, S. D.; Las Vegas, Nev.; Pocatello and Boise, Idaho. He received his radio operator's and mechanic's diploma from the radio school at Sioux Falls on March 24, 1943.

Sergeant Felix has been in England since late in September. His brother, Cpl. Francis J. Felix, 32, is with the Engineers in England. Another brother, Sgt. Paul Nolan Felix, 34, is with an infantry unit in the Marshalls. The fourth brother in the service is Norbert Felix, 22, a corporal in the quartermaster corps of the Army Air Forces at Fort Myers, Florida.

Establishment of dollars-and-cents ceiling prices for cotton, jersey, and leather-palm work gloves at wholesale and retail levels, was announced Friday by the Harrisburg District Office of Price Administration.

The action, effective May 16 for manufacturers and wholesalers, and June 6 for retailers, increases prices at all levels on approximately 130 styles of staple work gloves defined by the War Production Board. These gloves are the types generally used by essential war workers, farmers, and also the jersey gloves worn by children of all ages.

1,000 EXPECTED AT CONVENTION OF USWV IN JUNE

More than 1,000 delegates and guests to the 40th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Department of the United Spanish War veterans, its auxiliary and the Sons of the USWV are expected to attend the sessions here next month. George S. Rightmyer, general chairman of the committee in charge, said Monday.

Mr. Rightmyer also announced the program for the sessions which will be held June 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23. Registration of delegates will begin at 8 o'clock on the morning of June 19 at the Hotel Gettysburg. At 1 p. m. an automobile caravan will move to Scotland school for the graduation exercises there.

CHURCH SERVICES

Morning services in all churches will open the sessions Sunday, June 11. At 11 o'clock that afternoon the annual parade will be held.

Scheduled to take part in the parade so far are the Boys Band of Scotland school, the Philadelphia Drum Corps of the USWV and the Drum Corps of Pittsburgh which includes a number of members over 70 years of age.

The local educators went to Washington last Friday at the invitation of Dr. Thomas H. Briggs, director for the NEA of a three-year study on consumer education. They conferred with him and his assistant, Dr. Fred T. Wilhelm. Doctor Bream has a special interest in consumer education work. His thesis leading to his doctorate last year was on that subject.

Albany Tightens Grip On 1st Place

(By the Associated Press) Albany's Senators tightened their eastern league leadership last night with an impressive 15-to-1 wind-up of their home stand at the expense of Binghamton's Triplets.

The victory gave the Senators a clean sweep of the two-game series and five wins in the six starts at home. They registered 16 hits off three hurlers.

Second-place Wilkes-Barre downed Williamsport's Grays, 8 to 8, as 17-year-old Francis Maloney gained credit for his first victory of the season with a fine six-inning relief job. They wind up the series here this afternoon in the circuit's only game for the day.

Hartford split a doubleheader with Utica, 3 to 2, and 0 to 2, in which the Laurels suffered their first setback since last Sunday.

Scranton's Red-Sox also divided a twin bill with Elmira, 2 to 7 and 10 to 1.

PENSIVE NINTH TO TAKE DERBY AND PREAKNESS

By DONALD SANDERS

Pensive, the 9th horse in turf history to win both the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, was prepared today to leave for Belmont Park to point for the Belmont stakes, third leg of the triple crown, possibly by way of the Withers.

Trainer Ben Jones, who predicted his Calumet farm stable to New York, still had not decided whether he would start Saturday's Preakness winner in the Withers, mile race to be contested this Saturday.

Among the 33,011 persons who saw Warren Wright's chestnut Son of Hyperion charge from behind to win the richest of 54 Preakness runnings, there were many who doubted that the colt would be at his best over the short distance.

For Pensive didn't really start to run until the field of seven had gone three-quarters of a mile, and he was still in third place to Mrs. Payne Whitney's Stir Up and George D. Widener's Platter as they turned for home.

Winner's Check $60,075

Platter soon collared Stir Up, and then lugged in toward the rail as Little Conn McCreary and Pensive came winging by at the sixteenth pole to earn a three-quarter length victory and the winner's check of $60,075. He ran the mile and three-sixteenths in 1:59 1-5.

Pensive thus boosted his earning for 1944 to $139,475 and won the seventh Maryland stake triumph for Wright's Calumet horses. The $142,705 which the Calumet color bearers picked up at Pimlico, together with their winnings in Florida and Pensive's Derby check ran the total for the young season to $250,840—only some $17,000 short of their figure last year, when they topped the country.

Saturday's Pimlico crowd, which made pensive a $5.30 for $2 favorite sent a record Maryland wagering total through the mutual windows, betting $1,758,588 on the eight races and the daily double. The Preakness handle was $332,108, also a Maryland record for one race.

Sailors Take Lead In Pony Circuit

Buffalo, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—The Erie Sailors moved into first place in the Pony league last night as they defeated Bradford 4-3, 5-2 at both ends of a doubleheader.

Bradford opened well in the first game and led 2-1 until the seventh inning when the Sailors scored two and added a clincher in the ninth. The second game, scoreless until the seventh inning, was won for the Sailors by four runs in the eighth.

The Batavia Clippers nosed out the Wellsville Yankees 2-1 in a game that was called at the end of the eighth inning because of rain. A homer by Kromko, Batavia left fielder, provided the Clippers' margin of victory.

In the other games played last night, the Jamestown Falcons evened their series with the Olean Oilers by defeating them 6-5, and Hornell trounced Lockport 10-3, forcing the Cubs back into second place.

Today's games: Batavia at Bradford; Hornell at Jamestown; Olean at Lockport; Erie at Wellsville.

Mt. St. Mary's Nine Loses To Loyola 12-2

Loyola college won its first home game of the baseball season by defeating Mount St. Mary's Navy Trainee nine, 12-2, in a seven-inning game Friday at Baltimore.

Dan Feeney pitched for the Greyhounds, allowing five hits, fanning six and walking three. Errors prevented a good chance for him to have a shutout.

Harry Hughes, of Denton, Maryland, worked the first five innings on the mound for Mount St. Mary's. He was touched for seven runs off six hits.

Rodgers and Hall, who divided the last few innings among them, were very wild. In the seventh, after five straight Loyola batters were walked with two out, Sid Roche failed to end the game, which was terminated by agreement.

The defeat was the third of the season for the Canners who have won eight games.

Kemper, York Springs hurler, fanned 11 batsmen and permitted but three hits.

Backers of Twilight Tear added fuel to the discussion when she easily won the Pimlico Oaks, but supporters of Pensive answered that after their horse came from behind to take the Preakness. New Yorkers got their first glimpse of the filly yesterday as a three-year-old and they left Belmont wondering if Twilight is not the better of the two since she traveled the mile in 1:37 and easily hung it on nine others of her sex and age.

Because of his victories in the Derby and Preakness, Pensive has the better money record. He has picked up $139,475 of the $261,740

earned this year by the bearers of the red devilled silks. Twilight Tear, beaten only in her first start of 1944 and then by older horses, has won $34,780. As a two-year-old, the filly won $34,610 and Pensive $5,490.

New York, N. Y. (AP)—Looks like there's a slight football war brewing—and we don't mean the difference of opinion between Lou Little and Bill Bingham about the college rules. . . . It seems the new American league on the Pacific coast has been dickering with a few players who are under contract to National league clubs. . . . That, of course, would "outlaw" the athletes for five years but it may be that some of them are shopping around to see if the risk is worth taking.

Eli Whitney, the champion heart player and Victory gardener of the American Bowling Congress, reports he has raised 500 tomato, cabbage, pepper, etc., plants right in his office building.

CANNERS DROP HORSE LOVERS TALK PENSIVE, TWILIGHT TEAR

New York, May 18 (AP)—There's an argument going the rounds of racing circles over the relative merits of Pensive, the Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner, and Twilight Tear, a filly with a record of six straight victories, but Ben Jones will have no part of it.

Missouri Ben is the one man who could settle the argument since he's the trainer of the two act three-year-olds from Warren Wright's Calumet farm, but if he knows which is the better he's not saying.

His answer to the questions after Twilight Tear cakewalked home in the Acorn stakes at Belmont park was:

"If somebody wants to arrange a match race between the pair, winner take all, I'll gladly see that both of them get to the post."

The debate started after Pensive's surprise victory in the Derby.

The report got around, although all official members of the stable refused to be quoted, that Jones left his best Derby candidate in the east when he decided to withhold Twilight Tear for filly stakes.

Just Folks
By Edgar A. Guest
JUST WATCHING

My grandfather said as he sat at the pane:

"I used to feel sorry for men in the rain."

I used to have pity for men in the snow."

Obliged out-of-doors in ill-weather to go.

But now I am certain it's better to be.

At work in the rain than safe sheltered like me.

"I used to feel sorry at times for myself

And wished to be kept, like a book on a shelf,

Away from the weather with nothing to do.

But wait till my friends with their labors were through.

But now I've discovered, beyond any doubt,

The old are kept in when the young venture out.

"I thought to be idle was best, I recall,

But now that I am, I don't like it at all.

Much happier I'd be could I wake up again

To trudge through the snow and to walk in the rain;

To stand to the weather, whatever it be,

Than to sit at the window just watching, like me!"

ROBIN TRAINING
I fancied yesterday I heard
The counsel of a mother-bird.

A mother-robin on a tree

Saying: "Now spread your wings with me!"

Knowing full well her fledglings small

Would, with the first brave effort fall.

Three lessons more she bade them take:

First, how and where a nest to make;

Next what of berries and of meat

Robins, both young and old, could eat.

And lastly just what foes to fear

And how to sense when they were near.

When she was sure her young could fly

She said to them a last goodbye.

On equal terms away they went,

To live the life their maker meant.

She stored no food for them to find,

Were they to idleness inclined....

No easier way of life was shown

For them, that she herself had known;

No nest prepared and furnished free,

But useful robins trained to be,

And taught the various skills they'd need.

Were they as robins to succeed.

GOLD STAR
Father, were it otherwise.

Had he turned and fled.

Sought by cunning tricks ad lies

Safely sure, instead:

Had he watched his fellows leave

While at home he stayed.

Then a bitterer cause to grieve

On your heart were laid.

Mother, hold your head up high.

That he hoped you'd do

When he said that last goodbye.

Smiling back at you.

But had it been otherwise,

Had he run away,

Bitterer tears had filled your eyes

Than are there today.

Change the blue star into gold,

For the world to see.

Now, forever, 'twill be told

Soldier brave was he.

Now, although at times you weep

When you think of him,

You have memories to keep

Time will never dim.

GAME OF CHANCE

Oklahoma City (AP)—Judge Carl Traub of Common Pleas court missed 14 of 20 shots—a nickel's worth—at figure of Hitler with an electric ray gun, then ruled that the device, although purely for amusement, is illegal in Oklahoma because "the chance is that the player might be satisfied or dissatisfied—if he misses he might feel he has lost." Judge Traub indicated, however, that his marksmanship with the machine had no bearing on his decision.

UNFAIR

Richmond, Va. (AP)—Colgate W. Darden, Jr., as governor of Virginia is accustomed to being placarded by groups anxious to have him support certain legislation.

The "home front" followed suit the other day after the governor had lectured his two young sons on the subject of more studying and fewer movies. They confronted him, the governor related, with placards to the effect that the governor of Virginia was "unusually hard" on his children.

IT'S SPRING TOO

New York. (AP)—Vincent Corea, 11, and his brother, Charles 10, don't like to go to the dentist.

Their mother started them out Saturday for Polyclinic hospital Dental clinic, but they went to Central Park instead, and spent the night in a cardboard box behind the monkey cage while police were searching for them. Frank Corea, 14, found his brothers yesterday.

Their punishment? They have to go to the dentist today.

PUBLIC SERVICE

Greensboro, N. C. (AP)—When a soldier and his wife climbed into the parked police cruiser and he said "Bus terminal, please," the cop at the wheel entered into the spirit of the occasion and drove them there.

As they got out the woman noticed the lettering on the side of the car and exploded to her spouse, "You dumb numbskull! can't you tell a police car from a taxicab?"

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

JUST WATCHING

My grandfather said as he sat at the pane:

"I used to feel sorry for men in the rain."

I used to have pity for men in the snow.

Obliged out-of-doors in ill-weather to go.

But now I am certain it's better to be

At work in the rain than safe sheltered like me.

"I used to feel sorry at times for myself

And wished to be kept like a book on a shelf.

Away from the weather with nothing to do

But wait till my friends with their labor were through.

But now I've discovered, beyond any doubt,

The old are kept in when the young venture out.

"I thought to be idle was best, I recall.

But now that I am, I don't like it at all.

Much happier I'd be could I wake up again

To trudge through the snow and to walk in the rain;

To stand to the weather, whatever it be,

Than to sit at the window just watching, like me."

BORIN TRAINING

I fancied yesterday I heard

The counsel of a mother-bird,

A mother-robin on a tree

Saying: "Now spread your wings with me!"

Knowing full well her fledglings small

Would, with the first brave effort fall.

Three lessons more she bade them take:

First, how and where a nest to make;

Next, what of berries and of meat

Robins, both young and old, could eat.

And lastly just what foes to fear

And how to sense when they were near.

When she was sure her young could fly

She said to them a last goodbye.

On equal terms away they went,

To live the life their maker meant.

She stored no food for them to find.

Were they to idleness inclined...

No easier way of life was shown
For them, than she herself had known;

No nest prepared and furnished free.

But useful robins trained to be,

And taught the various skills
they'd need

Were they as robins to succeed.

GOLD STAR

Father, were it otherwise,

Had he turned and fled.

Sought by cunning tricks ad lies

Safety sure, instead;

Had he watched his fellows leave

While at home he stayed,

Then a bitterer cause to grieve

On your heart were laid.

Mother, hold your head up high.

That he hoped you'd do

When he said that last goodby,

Smiling back at you.

But had it been otherwise,

Had he run away,

Bitterer tears had filled your eyes

Than are there today.

Change the blue star into gold,

For the world to see.

Now, forever, 'twill be told

Soldier brave was he.

Now, although at times you weep

When you think of him,

You have memories to keep

Time will never dim.

With Our Service MenLetters To
The Editor

Dear Sir:

I wish to express my most sincere thanks to you for the Times while stationed in the southwest.

I'm always interested most in reading about where all the boys are moving and how they are. I'm enjoying by stay here in Maryland. Thanks again for the Times.

PPC. GERALD J. HAWN,
Battery B, 17th Bn.,
15th FA Regiment,
AGF Replacement Depot 1,
Ft. Meade, Maryland

Dear Sir:

I have been receiving the Gettysburg Times pretty regularly now and I sure do enjoy reading it very much. Thanks an awful lot and keep them coming.

A few days ago I had liberty so I thought I would go to the nearest town and see what was cooking. While in this town I went to the American Red Cross where most of the boys find a very comfortable place to go. They have everything there from a moving picture to a bath tub. It is really a nice little town, about the size of Hanover. It was on Saturday afternoon that I went to this town and it sure did remind me of Gettysburg on Saturday nights because it was so crowded. The only thing different was that there are no lights after the sun goes down. It really seems funny to have a blackout every night. As a matter of fact we are blacked out every night from sunset to sunrise.

Going back to the Red Cross, I happened to get hold of the servicemen's album and I saw the names of three boys that are stationed within fifty miles of me from Gettysburg. They are: Pvt. Eugene Miller, Cpl. Fred Taylor and Pvt. Charles Friderer. I don't suppose I will ever get the chance to see them.

On Wednesday, May 3, we are going to have a visitor at our base here in England. Guess who? None other than Staff Sgt. Joe Louis, the "Brown Bomber." I suppose I will have to see him because I may never get another chance. He is going to fight a few rounds with his buddy 1st Sgt. George Nicholson.

Well, I guess I better close for tonight and go dig up a spot of tea somewhere. Keep 'em coming. So long friends. Cheerio.

A Faithful Reader
S. 2-c Joseph Bosak

Dear Sir:

I think it is about time I give an account of myself.

I have been here in England over nine months now. In that time I have seen and learned much. Should like to tell you

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO AID R.C. ON QUOTAS

With a quota of 576 kit bags to be completed within the next three months and with several hundred girls' woolen dresses to be completed by June, the Adams county Red Cross Tuesday asked for additional volunteer assistance if it is to complete the required articles on time.

One half of the kit bags will be made in khaki for Army use and the other half will be in blue for the Navy. It was announced, with national Red Cross to ship the materials for the bags here to be sewed by the local group of women working under the direction of Mrs. C. B. Stover at the Red Cross sewing room on East High street.

Ned Workers, Money

Already 144 bags, which will complete the previous quota of the Red Cross, are nearly completed for shipment, and the group expects to begin work on the new kit bag quota in the near future, as soon as the dresses are completed.

Three requests were made by the Red Cross for assistance in meeting the quotas. More women are needed at the sewing room to replace many of the workers who have been engaged in the work since 1939 and now have either moved out of town or have secured employment which prevents their taking part in the sewing activities.

Additional donations of money are needed from organizations or individuals to purchase the toilet articles, cigarettes and the like that are placed in the kit bags.

Requested By Army, Navy

Because it is impossible to purchase sufficient new playing cards for the kits, the request is made that persons who have fairly new, complete decks of cards and who do not need the cards, turn them over to the Red Cross to be placed in the kit bags for the soldiers and sailors.

The organization also asked persons who have paper-backed books which they have read and no longer use to turn the books in so that they may be placed in the kit bags for the soldiers to read.

The kit bags are furnished by the Red Cross at the request of Army and Navy officials, it was stated, and the contents of the bags are prescribed by the military. Each bag includes toilet articles, writing materials, cigarettes, cards and a paper-bound book.

Donors Get Credit

Those organizations or individuals contributing toward the kit bags are recognized by having a card placed in each kit bag listing their names as donors. Each bag costs $1 to fill and for each $1 contributed a card listing the donor is placed in a kit bag. Already a number of donors for kit bags have been listed with the latest including the Phi Gamma Delta of Gettysburg college which gave $10 and Maj. Eston White, Fairfield, who gave $5.

The several hundred girls' woolen dresses to be completed by the women under the direction of Mrs. Stover is the latest quota among thousands of garments made by the group since 1939. Because of the increased quotas and the shortage of help at the sewing center additional women are being sought as volunteers to help with the sewing. Women who wish to do the work can sew at the room on East High street every Thursday and Friday, or they can obtain the materials there and do the sewing at their own homes. Both power- and foot-driven sewing machines are available at the Red Cross center.

All of the kit bags made so far have been sewed either at High street, or at New Oxford and Biglerville centers; it was stated.

Town Clean-Up To Start Soon

The annual borough clean-up campaign will get under way in about two weeks, or just as soon as the work of patching the streets is completed. Street Commissioner Leroy Winebrenner said today.

"I have been besieged by many residents asking when the borough will start cleaning up the alleys of the winter's accumulation of ashes and other debris. The council feels that it is more important to complete the street patching work before we start the clean-up," Mr. Winebrenner said.

"We feel confident that we will complete our street work before Memorial Day when the Governors of 41 states and territories will come to Gettysburg for the exercises in the National Cemetery. As soon as this work is completed we will publish an official notice calling upon the people to be ready for the clean-up campaign."

Firemen Extinguish Grass, Brush Blazes

Gettysburg firemen were called out to two grass and brush fires over the week-end.

The first alarm came about 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon when firemen extinguished a grass fire on Gettysburg college land north of West Broadway and between the Mummasburg road and the railroad.

The second call was about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon when a brush fire was reported in the woods back of the Eternal Light Peace Memorial on Oak Ridge. Neither blaze was serious.

GIVES REASONS FOR CHANGE IN SUGAR RATIONS

Ray M. Hoffman, chairman of the Gettysburg War Price and Ration Board, Wednesday urged residents of western Adams county and Gettysburg to apply "for just enough sugar for your canning needs."

"There will be available for you up to 25 pounds of sugar for every person in your family, if you need that much," Mr. Hoffman said, "but please do not ask for that much if you do not need it, and please do not apply at all if you are not going to do any canning or preserving. This is a direct appeal to your American patriotism, based on what we know to be true, for too heavy demands are made for sugar now, there will be none left when the late crops become available."

Cites Reasons

In a letter sent to most applicants for sugar Mr. Hoffman said: "Let me tell you briefly just why it was necessary to change the method of issuing sugar for home canning. When the program was first announced, applicants came into the local Boards all over the country long before the fruit was ripe for canning. It is almost unbelievable, but nearly every application was for the full 20 pound maximum and many had to be rejected. Certainly no one at that time knew how much fruit she was going to can, since no one knows, even now, how much the vines and trees are going to bear nor how much will reach the market for civilian use."

"If that rate had continued, the sugar allotted for home canning would have been distributed long before the late crops became available, and many people would possibly have used up their sugar for other purposes. Despite all you might have heard to the contrary, there is still not enough sugar in America to supply all of our wants, even though the supply picture looks brighter than it did in February and March. If there were plenty, we should not have to continue rationing sugar. We'd stop rationing sugar just as we stopped rationing coffee, if the supply should become adequate."

"Under the revised home canning plan, two periods are designated during which applications may be made. The first period for this district is from May 15 to July 15, 1944. The second period is from July 16 to October 31, 1944. These periods are based on the actual seasons when the most home canning is done."

125 PRESENT AT CHURCH SOCIAL

The annual Mother-Daughter social of the Arendtsville charge of the Evangelical Reformed church was held Friday evening in the Arendtsville high school auditorium with 125 persons present.

Spring flowers and candles were used in decorating.

Mrs. Elizabeth Nary, 83, Biglerville, received the award for being the oldest mother present; Mrs. Glenn Kime, youngest mother; Mrs. Roy Kuykendall, mother with most daughters present, and Mrs. Edward Keller, as the representative of four generations present.

Accompanying Mrs. Keller were her daughter, Mrs. Dorsey Martz, her granddaughter, Mrs. Glenn Bream, and her great-granddaughter, Bonnie Bream. Bonnie Bream was also the youngest daughter present.

The following program was presented: Recitation, "Welcome to Our Mothers," Martha Hartzell; selections by a vocal trio, Carolyn Taylor, Betty Hartzell, Regina Culp; reading, "Ma Did It," Marian Tate; recitation, "Mother's Sick," Jane Longanecker; recitation, "Dressed Up Like Mother," Delores Gochener; pantomime, "Angel with Three Gifts," by a group of Girls' Guild members with accompanying reading by Mrs. Warren Bushey; vocal solo, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine," Mrs. Bushey; tribute to mothers, Louise Kime; "Faith of Our Mothers," by Mrs. Harry Kime's Sunday school class sponsored the social.

Nearly every establishment in Gettysburg is listed as closing Thursday afternoons in an advertisement appearing in today's editions of The Gettysburg Times sponsored by the Retail Merchants Committee of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce of which R. W. Wentz is chairman.

Business Places To Close Thursdays

Thirty-six Gettysburg merchants Tuesday announced they plan to close Thursday afternoons throughout summer months, from May 18 to September 1.

The scheduled closing is in line with previous years, and most barber shops, beauty shops and grocery stores of the community have been following a program of closing on Thursday afternoons throughout the year.

The following program was presented: Recitation, "Welcome to Our Mothers," Martha Hartzell; selections by a vocal trio, Carolyn Taylor, Betty Hartzell, Regina Culp; reading, "Ma Did It," Marian Tate; recitation, "Mother's Sick," Jane Longanecker; recitation, "Dressed Up Like Mother," Delores Gochener; pantomime, "Angel with Three Gifts," by a group of Girls' Guild members with accompanying reading by Mrs. Warren Bushey; tribute to mothers, Louise Kime; "Faith of Our Mothers," by Mrs. Harry Kime's Sunday school class sponsored the social.

There was much interest in the broadcast here because of the apprehension Mrs. Frazee had for her husband whom she believed was "overdue" from his last sub cruise.

The broadcast from the commander of her husband's sub allayed those fears. The broadcast, originating from Honolulu, did not state where the sub crew is at present.

Some local listeners said they understood the broadcast to report that the sub had rescued 20 men others believed the number was reported as twelve.

Thelma E. Heller, of Aspers, was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education from Temple university, on Thursday.

It will mark the second May commencement in the 60-year history of the university. The class will be the smallest in several years due to the men students in the armed services, and also separate graduation in the professional schools under the university's stepped-up wartime schedule.

We feel confident that we will complete our street work before Memorial Day when the Governors of 41 states and territories will come to Gettysburg for the exercises in the National Cemetery. As soon as this work is completed we will publish an official notice calling upon the people to be ready for the clean-up campaign."

Oahu Is Like Adams County In June, Says Sgt. E. R. Delp SAYS BANKERS' FUTURE RESTS IN THEIR HANDS

A member of the first company of WACs to reach Hawaii, First Sergeant E. Romaine Delp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Delp of Idaho and former secretary in the office of the county superintendent of schools, says Oahu is "like Adams county in June."

Serving as second in charge of an office of the Army Air Force at Hickam Field, she resides in a "luxurious" apartment house. "I like it very much and am very happy," she has written friends here.

Since arriving in Hawaii in March, Sgt. Delp has met a number of Adams countians including Robert Reinhold of Fairfield and William A. Beales of Gettysburg, now serving with the Seabees in Hawaii.

Miss Delp, who marched in Memorial Day parade in Gettysburg last year, entered the Wac Jan. 23, 1943, and was sent to Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia. Later she went to Denton, Texas, for six weeks of training, then to Fort Devens, Mass. She was transferred to the Air Transport Command and was sent to Washington, D. C., where she remained until January of this year when she was transferred to the Fairfield Army Air Field, California. From there she went to Hawaii. Her promotion which she did in civilian life.

SERGEANT DELP

have replaced Air Transport Command personnel so that they could be moved to the South Pacific. Her work is secretarial—similar to that of our bankers," he asserted.

Pointing out that banks in Pennsylvania have "not been as guilty of this as others," he asserted that "many banks have not been too courteous in their treatment of savings depositors, yet three-fourths of all our contacts with the public are through such departments."

The trend in banking during the last ten years has "not been very wholesome," he asserted. "In 1941, according to surveys, 83 per cent of the savings in the country were in the banks, but the banks were steadily losing depositors. From 1935 to 1940 only 33 per cent of new savings were coming to the banks. The remainder were going into savings and loans and government agencies. From 1939 to 1941 only one new account in every six was going into the banks," he said.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO AID R.C. ON QUOTAS

With a quota of 576 kit bags to be completed within the next three months and with several hundred girls' woolen dresses to be completed by June, the Adams county Red Cross Tuesday asked for additional volunteer assistance if it is to complete the required articles on time.

One half of the kit bags will be made in khaki for Army use and the other half will be in blue for the Navy. It was announced, with national Red Cross to ship the materials for the bags here to be sewed by the local group of women working under the direction of Mrs. C. B. Stover at the Red Cross sewing room on East High street.

Need Workers, Money

Already 144 bags, which will complete the previous quota of the Red Cross, are nearly completed for shipment, and the group expects to begin work on the new kit bag quota in the near future, as soon as the dresses are completed.

Three requests were made by the Red Cross for assistance in meeting the quotas. More women are needed at the sewing room to replace many of the workers who have been engaged in the work since 1939 and now have either moved out of town or have secured employment which prevents their taking part in the sewing activities.

Additional donations of money are needed from organizations or individuals to purchase the toilet articles, cigarettes and the like that are placed in the kit bags.

Requested By Army, Navy

Because it is impossible to purchase sufficient new playing cards for the kits, the request is made that persons who have fairly new, complete decks of cards and who do not need the cards, turn them over to the Red Cross to be placed in the kit bags for the soldiers and sailors.

The organization also asked persons who have paper-backed books which they have read and no longer use to turn the books in so that they may be placed in the kit bags for the soldiers to read.

The kit bags are furnished by the Red Cross at the request of Army and Navy officials, it was stated, and the contents of the bags are prescribed by the military. Each bag includes toilet articles, writing materials, cigarettes, cards and a paper-bound book.

Donors Get Credit

Those organizations or individuals contributing toward the kit bags are recognized by having a card placed in each kit bag listing their names as donors. Each bag costs $1 to fill and for each $1 contributed a card listing the donor is placed in a kit bag. Already a number of donors for kit bags have been listed with the latest including the Phi Gamma Delta of Gettysburg college which gave $10 and Maj. Eston White, Fairfield, who gave $5.

The several hundred girls' woolen dresses to be completed by the women under the direction of Mrs. Stover is the latest quota among thousands of garments made by the group since 1939. Because of the increased quotas and the shortage of help at the sewing center additional women are being sought as volunteers to help with the sewing. Women who wish to do the work can sew at the room on East High street every Thursday and Friday, or they can obtain the materials there and do the sewing at their own homes. Both power- and foot-driven sewing machines are available at the Red Cross center.

All of the kit bags made so far have been sewed either at High street, or at New Oxford and Bigerville centers, it was stated.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Mrs. Amos W. Myer, Gettysburg R. 3; Walter A. Mayer, Gettysburg R. 4; and Iva Erie Aspers R. 1, have been admitted as patients to the Warner hospital. Those discharged were Mrs. Harold Knoll, 401 Baltimore street; Mrs. Howard Welty and infant daughter, Joan Louise, Rocky Ridge, Maryland; Mrs. Kenneth McClellan and infant son, James Douglas, Gettysburg R. 1, and Paul Dushad, Fairfield R. 1.

Town Clean-Up To Start Soon

The annual borough clean-up campaign will get under way in about two weeks, or just as soon as the work of patching the streets is completed. Street Commissioner Leroy Winebrenner said today.

"I have been besieged by many residents asking when the borough will start cleaning up the alleys of the winter's accumulation of ashes and other debris. The council feels that it is more important to complete the street patching work before we start the clean-up," Mr. Winebrenner said.

"We feel confident that we will complete our street work before Memorial Day when the Governors of 48 states and territories will come to Gettysburg for the exercises in the National Cemetery. As soon as this work is completed we will publish an official notice calling upon the people to be ready for the clean-up campaign."

Firemen Extinguish Grass, Brush Blazes

Gettysburg firemen were called out to two grass and brush fires over the week-end.

The first alarm came about 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon when firemen extinguished a grass fire on Gettysburg college land north of West Broadway and between the Mummasburg road and the railroad.

The second call was about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon when a brush fire was reported in the woods back of the Eternal Light Peace Memorial on Oak Ridge. Neither blaze was serious.

Gives Reasons For Change In Sugar Rations

Ray M. Hoffman, chairman of the Gettysburg War Price and Ration Board, Wednesday urged residents of western Adams county and Gettysburg to apply "for just enough sugar for your canning needs."

"There will be available for you up to 25 pounds of sugar for every person in your family, if you need that much," Mr. Hoffman said, "but please do not ask for that much if you do not need it, and please do not apply at all if you are not going to do any canning or preserving. This is a direct appeal to your American patriotism, based on what we know to be true, for if too heavy demands are made for sugar now, there will be none left when the late crops become available."

Cites Reasons

In a letter sent to most applicants for sugar Mr. Hoffman said:

"Let me tell you briefly just why it was necessary to change the method of issuing sugar for home canning. When the program was first announced, applicants came into the local Boards all over the country long before the fruit was ripe for canning. It is almost unbelievable, but nearly every application was for the full 20 pound maximum and many had to be rejected. Certainly no one at that time knew how much fruit she was going to can, since no one knows, even now, how much the vines and trees are going to bear nor how much will reach the market for civilian use.

Each recipient received a miniature Silver Buffalo award suspended from a red, white and blue ribbon and also an inscribed certificate bearing the citation that accompanied the award. Mr. Benson, accompanied by Mrs. Benson, attended the luncheon and received the award in person.

Mr. Benson, whose citation recognized his accomplishments as an educator, author, lecturer and social worker, is the originator and for the first 10 years national director of the United States Department of Agriculture 4-H clubs for farm boys and girls. He is the organizer of Junior Chautauqua work and Junior Town programs and originator of Junior Achievement clubs for city boys and girls now active in many cities in this country. He served as a teacher, principal and superintendent of schools for 15 years and has been a scoutmaster, merit badge counselor and member of two local council executive boards of the Boy Scouts.

For 15 years he was national director of Rural Scouting and was "creative" in his efforts to adapt scouting to the specific needs of boys in rural towns and farm areas. He assisted in the preparation of agricultural merit badge pamphlets in scout work.

"He has devoted his lifetime to enlarging the opportunities of all boys and girls, promoting a better understanding between youth in the city and rural communities." It was stated in an announcement from national scout headquarters telling of the citation and award.

Pointing out that banks in Pennsylvania have "not been as guilty of this as others," he asserted that "many banks have not been too courteous in their treatment of savings depositors, yet three-fourths of all our contacts with the public are through the savings department."

Miss Margaret Babie, president of the Mask and Wig dramatic club at Gettysburg high school, was voted the title of "best thespian of the year" by members of the society, it was disclosed Tuesday evening at the annual banquet of the organization at the Battlefield hotel. Second honors went to Miss Ruth Warman. Both are seniors and both had roles in the senior play last month.

Dramatic activity letters were awarded to these seniors by Miss Ruth A. McIlhenny, club advisor; Barbara Cline, Luther Gotwald, Rose Zita Gaines, Fred Griffin, Joseph Hanawalt, Ruth Warman, Margaretta, Violet Rosensteel, John Knorr, Elyse McCleaf and Harvey White.

44 Persons Attend

Forty-four members and guests attended the dinner session, the last of the year for the club. Miss Ruth A. Scott and Fred G. Troxell of the faculty were special guests. Miss Babie, the president, was toastmistress. Barbara Wolff led the singing. The entertainment program included duets, radio skits and impersonations by members of the group.

Ruth Warman read the senior's "will" to the other members of the organization.

Students recently admitted to the Mask and Wig on the basis of their activity in school dramatics include Charles Smith, Mary Clare Myers, Harry Moser and Edgar Raffensperger.

Bullets Enter Two In Middle Atlantics

Two Gettysburg college athletes gained four points in the annual Middle Atlantics Athletic track and field meet held Saturday at Allentown.

Don Roberts was the lone scorer for the Bullets gaining third place in the shot put and fifth place in the discus. Bob Logan entered the discus but failed to place.

Muhlenberg's Navy-studded line-up took the meet with 58 5/6 points. Other team scores follow: Swarthmore, 47; F. and M. 41 2/3; Ursinus, 16; Rutgers, 14; Haverford, 12 1/2; Lehigh, 11; St. Joseph's, 5, and Gettysburg, 4.

Sub Commander On Air Tonight; Fears Allied

Lieut. Commander Richard O. Kane, in command of a submarine in the Pacific, will be interviewed on the radio tonight at 10:30 o'clock, over the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Commander Kane is in command of a sub on which Lt. Commander Murray B. Frazer, husband of the former Miss Betty Swope, is the Executive Officer.

Some apprehension had been expressed by Mrs. Frazer because she had not heard from her husband for some time, an unusual occurrence.

However, Mrs. Kane telephoned Mrs. Frazer this morning that her husband would be interviewed on the radio tonight, thus setting aside any fears that something may have happened to the submarine on which they were off.

The sale will open Saturday, May 20, and will continue until Memorial Day.

Mrs. Codori will meet with members of the troops Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the YWCA building to plan for the campaign.

Commissioners Turn Down Courthouse Bid

The Adams county commissioners received only one bid Wednesday for the proposed remodeling of the commissioners' and treasurer's offices at the court house, it was announced Thursday.

Because they felt "it would be unfair at this time" to let the contract with only one bidder represented, the commissioners rejected the bid. A number of other contractors would have bid in bids if they had been sure of obtaining plumbers, electricians, carpenters and other help, the commissioners said, and to determine his qualifications as a pre-aviation cadet.

Cpl. Brown is the son of Mrs. Hazel Brown, of Fairfield, and prior to his entry into the armed forces in June, 1942, worked for the Blue Ridge Pipe and Nipple company, in Greenstone, Pa.

The new bids will be opened June 7, it was announced.

SAYS BANKERS' FUTURE RESTS IN THEIR HANDS

"We are going through a period when we don't know what will happen to us—we don't know if we are to continue as bankers, or if the government will take over. The decision lies in our hands, because what the people on the street want will determine what kind of banks there are in the post-war world and whether the government will take over the banking industry."

That statement by J. R. Dunkerley, secretary of the savings division of the American Bankers Association, highlighted his talk on "Safe Service Charges and Methods of Computing Interest," given Wednesday evening before the Adams County Bankers Association dinner meeting at the Hotel Gettysburg.

"Surveys made several years ago disclosed that before the war 40 per cent of the people thought that the government could handle the banking of the country better than the private bankers, while 45 per cent thought the present bankers were doing a good job.
